And Senate Bill No. 308, as amended on the third reading, was referred to the Committee on Engrossed Bills.

By unanimous consent—

Mr. Carlton called up Committee Substitute for Senate Joint Resolution No. 294, with committee substitute, which had been informally passed over.

And—

Committee Substitute for Senate Joint Resolution No. 294:

A joint resolution proposing an amendment to Section 1 and Section 5 of Article IX of the Constitution of the State of Florida, relating to taxation and finance:

Be it Resolved by the Legislature of the State of Florida:

That the following amendments to Section 1 and Section 5 of Article 9 of the Constitution of the State of Florida, relating to Taxation and Finance, is hereby agreed to be submitted to the electors of the State of Florida for adoption or rejection at the next general election.

That is to say, that Section 1 of Article 9 of the Constitution of the State of Florida be and the same is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Section 1. The Legislature is hereby authorized to provide a fair and equitable means of taxation which shall be uniform upon all classes of property affected, and shall prescribe such regulations as shall secure a just valuation of all property, both real and personal, excepting such property as may be exempted by law for municipal, educational, literary, scientific, religious or charitable purposes.

That Section 5 of Article 9 of the Constitution of the State of Florida be and the same is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Section 5. The Legislature shall authorize the several counties and incorporated cities or towns in the State to assess and impose taxes for county and municipal purposes, and for no other purposes. But the cities and incorporated towns shall make their own assessments for municipal purposes upon the property within their limits. The Legislature may also provide for levying a special capitation tax, and a tax license. But the capitation tax shall not exceed one dollar a year and shall be applied exclusively to common school purposes.

Was taken up and read the third time.

Mr. MacWilliams moved to waive the rules and that the Senate do reconsider the vote by which Committee Substitute for Senate Joint Resolution No. 294 was adopted.

Which was agreed to by a unanimous vote.

So the substitute was placed before the Senate on its second reading.

Mr. Carlton offered the following amendment to Committee Substitute for Senate Joint Resolution No. 294:

In Section 5, strike out the last sentence.

Mr. Carlton moved the adoption of the amendment.

Which was agreed to.

By unanimous consent—

Mr. Carlton moved to adopt the substitute as amended. Which was agreed to.

And the substitute was adopted in lieu of the original resolution, and the Substitute for Senate Joint Resolution No. 294, as amended, was read as follows:

A Joint Resolution proposing amendments to Section 1, and Section 5, of Article IX, of the Constitution of the State of Florida, relating to Taxation and Finance.

Be it Resolved by the Legislature of the State of Florida:

That the following amendments to Section 1, and Section 5, of Article 9, of the Constitution of the State of Florida, relating to Taxation and Finance is hereby agreed to be submitted to the electors of the State of Florida for adoption or rejection at the next general election.

That is to say that Section 1, of Article 9, of the Constitution of the State of Florida, be and the same is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Section 1. The Legislature is hereby authorized to provide a fair and equitable means of taxation which shall be uniform upon all classes of property affected, and shall prescribe such regulations as shall secure a just valuation of all property, both real and personal, excepting such property as may be exempted by law for municipal, educational, literary, scientific, religious or charitable purposes.

That Section 5, of Article 9, of the Constitution of the State of Florida, be and the same is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Section 5. The Legislature shall authorize the several counties and incorporated cities or towns in the State to assess and impose taxes for county and municipal purposes, and for no other purposes. But the cities and incorporated towns shall make their own assessments for municipal purposes upon the property within their limits. The Legislature may also provide for levying a special capitation tax, and a tax on licenses.

Mr. Carlton moved that the rules be waived and that Committee Substitute for Senate Joint Resolution No. 294 be read a third time in full and put upon its passage.
